

SCHOOLS AND ROADS
INSTEAD OF WALLS AND FENCES!

SHAPING MIGRATION – JUSTLY AND GLOBALLY

Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung | Hiroshimastraße 28 | 10785 Berlin
All messages at: www.fes.de/lnk/migration-gestalten

MESSAGE 6/10

SCHOOLS AND ROADS

INSTEAD OF WALLS AND FENCES!

Development funds are increasingly being spent to prevent migration. But border fences and restrictions on the freedom of movement hinder economic development while criminalising migration. Development cooperation should foster self-responsibility instead of making migration controls obligatory. Funds should not be invested in walls and fences, but rather in education, health and infrastructure.